STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY

“Here am I, Lord, send me!”

In November, Immanuel Lutheran Church will be having our annual pledge Sunday. This once a year event helps us as Christians to evaluate what we are able to give to our Church to further spread the good news of Jesus Christ. We give of ourselves through our time, talents, and treasures. Join your fellow brothers and sisters in Christ as we proclaim to our Lord the sacrifices that we will make this coming year, and prayerfully consider how you can personally grow as a Christian this coming year.

Messenger is published monthly by Immanuel Lutheran Church and School for its members and friends.

Immanuel is a member of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod.

"Just Like Our Parents"

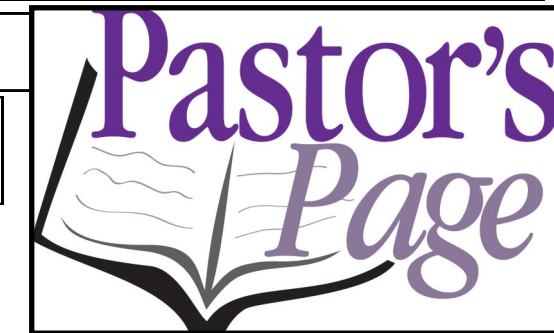

Soon, many of us will have the opportunity to sit down with family and/or friends and give thanks for all of God's blessings. Of course, Christians don't need a special day to show our gratitude to the Almighty. But Thanksgiving has always been ranked near the top of "favorite holidays." I know it's that way in my own family. And speaking of families, family traditions are what makes Thanksgiving (and other holidays) memorable. Those traditions are kept alive by each generation as we pass them along – grandparents to parents, parents to children, and children to their children.

Have you ever noticed how often it is that children emulate their parents? Children watch their parents and they do what they see them doing. This is how they learn to speak. They watch the shape and form of their parents' mouths and they try to make the same shape so that they can make the same sounds.

But children copy their parents even on a more mundane level. They watch how their parents cross their legs, how they fold their hands, how they stand and sit and walk, how they do and say most everything: and children try to copy it. This can be quite humorous when caught in the act. They do this even when parents don't want them to. Everyone has been in the uncomfortable, and sometimes embarrassing, situation where a child does or says what one of their parents have done or said... something that isn't too flattering! Sitcoms thrive on this sort of thing. And it only works because of the truth that children emulate their parents. And they do it because they want to be like them.

We are the children of God by grace, through faith. In Holy Baptism, God the Father declares of us what He declared of Jesus at His Baptism in the Jordan, "You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." God the Father claims us as His own. He takes away all our sins, and in exchange He gives us His righteousness, His purity, His holiness, and His Spirit, by which we cry out, "Abba, Father." We are born again, born from above, born of water and the Spirit, to a new life in Christ as His children. We are sons of God in Christ, through Baptism. And since we are sons, we are heirs; heirs who share in the glory of the Son of God. The inheritance is ours because of the Father's grace and mercy, because of His generosity in sending His Son in time to save us for all eternity.

And this is why we give generously of our income to the work of the church. Through the working of the Holy Spirit, we're enabled to lead holy lives. We're strengthened to emulate the generosity of our heavenly Father by being generous ourselves. We give to the work of the church because we've witnessed the generous giving of our Father in heaven. More than that, we're recipients of it. It's because we've received God our Father's gifts that we desire to give ourselves. And His gifts aren't just spiritual. They're temporal and earthly as well. As the Small Catechism teaches in the Fourth Petition of the Lord's Prayer:

1 Chronicles 29:13 "Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name."

"Give us this day our daily bread. What does this mean? God certainly gives daily bread to everyone without our prayers, even to all evil people, but we pray in this petition that God would lead us to realize this and to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving. What is meant by daily bread? Daily bread includes everything that has to do with the support and needs of the body, such as food, drink, clothing, shoes, house, home, land, animals, money, goods, a devout husband or wife, devout children, devout workers, devout and faithful rulers, good government, good weather, peace, health, self-control, good reputation, good friends, faithful neighbors, and the like."

In other words, He gives us everything that we need for the care of both body and soul. His generosity knows no bounds.

And so we sit down at the beginning of the year, the beginning of the month, or the beginning of the week, and set aside a generous portion of God's daily bread for His work in the church. Not because He's commanded us to do so. But rather because we, as His children by grace, want to emulate

His generosity in our own lives. He is our Father; we are His children. And children want to be like their parents.

Parish Nurse

Just an FYI for everyone to get their flu shots. Today, there is much talk regarding the Ebola virus. Even though there have been no cases reported in Conn., we want to be aware of symptoms to report. If you know of someone who has been out of the country or has been in contact with someone who has been out of the country and is experiencing symptoms, you need to report it immediately. The incubation period can be up to 21 days before experiencing any symptoms. They are not contagious during this time. High fever 101.5 or greater, sweat, vomiting, diarrhea, bleeding problems, bruising, and severe headaches should be reported immediately. Ebola is not airborne. It is passed thru body fluids, urine, feces, blood, mucous and thru open sores on the skin. You should be observed for 21 days and kept in isolation if you were in the presence of anyone who has been diagnosed with Ebola for your own protection and for those around you. We need to remember that we are never alone. Jesus is with us always and will never leave us. Remember good hygiene is important. Wash your hands frequently with soap and water.

I'd like to thank everyone who joined us for lunch at BARC on Wed. Oct 8th. Our group has increased from 2 to 14. We try to meet once a month. We made plans once again, to go out to lunch at 12:30pm on November 19, 2014 at Marilyn's in Forestville. All the women of Immanuel are invited to join us. Just let me know if you plan on going so I can let them know how many to expect. It is a great way to share your faith with your friends from church. Please think of a name we can call the group and bring your suggestions at the next lunch. Hope to see you there!! Remember also to join us on Tuesday mornings for Walk and Talk. You can walk at your own pace. After our walk, we meet and have coffee and discuss different topics, always with our focus on our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Please join us at the Parish Center on Tuesdays at 9:30 am. Women's Bible Study the last Tuesday of the month, 7pm at the Parish Center. Please join us. There are many homebound people in our congregation that would enjoy a visit from you. If you are interested in visiting shut ins, please leave a message at the Parish Center with your phone number and I'll make it a point to contact you as soon as possible. If you know of anyone who would like a visit from the parish nurse, please let me know as well.

YOUNG AT HEART

YOUNG-AT-HEART NEWS

It's time to celebrate on November 6th! Our lunch group has been doing these senior lunches for Twenty Years (20) and invite you to join us as we celebrate. Yes, twenty years ago in 1994 some Immanuel members formed the Senior Saints and started this program of monthly lunches. Our name is changed but some of the same original charter members still faithfully attend and contribute wonderful food for our buffets. We will have photo albums available for you to see some of our early events.

We will have our traditional Soup & Sandwich Lunch, with our great cooks bringing the foods, along with an Anniversary Cake. This is the last lunch in the Old School Basement this year. If you need a ride, or have questions, please call Carol Maron 582-9608. Webster Bank is sending two employees for our lunch program who will talk about keeping our money safe and avoiding Scams. Please join us for this very important information. We will also honor our Veterans in attendance.

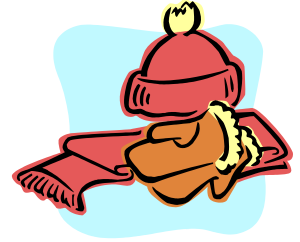

Next month, on December 9th Tuesday, we will hold our annual Christmas Party at Nuchies Restaurant in Forestville. We will be distributing these invitations to you at our Nov. 6 lunch, but put December 9 on your calendar now.

Can you visit one of our homebound members before the snow flies? If you need a name or phone number, try the office or phone our Parish Nurse, Roberta Kuhr. We saw a number of new faces last month when 66 of us attended our Oktoberfest Lunch and enjoyed the Old Tyme Fiddlers. Remember to join us on November 6 for our 20th Anniversary Lunch and help us celebrate with food and Christian fellowship!

Sharing the Good News

Jesus loves you! It is not just a coincidence that every pastor speaks of that saving love every Sunday.

We have Good News to share. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:16).

Can even a casual acquaintance see Christ's love in our lives?

Every time we interact with another person, whether driving, standing in line, or doing any of our normal day-to-day activities, we are missionaries. We don't have to be able to give a sermon to be a witness; we just have to be ready to share our story about God in our life.

Sharing doesn't have to be a speech; after all, you only have a minute or two in the check-out line. You do have time to be helpful, time for a friendly smile, and time for a pleasant greeting acknowledging that God has given us this wonderful day of rain or sunshine. That smile may open the door to a relationship and the opportunity to share the Gospel. God uses us to open the door and then He does the rest!

VOICE OF CARE MINISTRY TO THE DEVELOPMENTALLY CHALLENGED $50,600

There are over 300,000 people with developmental disabilities in northern Illinois and ninety percent of them are not connected with a congregation. For 10 years, Voice of Care has continually reached out to these people through the efforts of two chaplains and many volunteers to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to where these people live and work. Voice of Care would like to tell its story throughout The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod to engage others in giving of their resources and to begin similar programs in their own communities. Voice of Care uses all of its present resources for outreach ministry and needs additional resources to upgrade its office technology and to create a variety of ways, including multi-media presentations, through which its story can be told.

Prayer: Dear Heavenly Father, through the training and resources that Voice of Care provides, many congregations are reaching out through Sunday school, Bible studies, and respite care programs. Bless this grant, dear Lord, to bring the message of Christ to children and adults who are developmentally challenged. In Jesus' precious and saving name we pray, Amen.

Oct. 7, 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

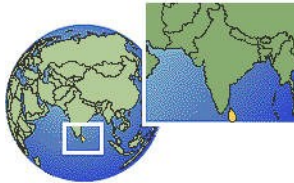

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

As Ebola continues its deadly sweep across West Africa — the death toll rising to some 3,500 at this writing — the people of the LCMS continue to respond with prayer and support for our relief efforts.

So far, we have given mercy grants totaling $67,729 to help our brothers and sisters in the most afflicted nations — Liberia, Sierra Leone and Guinea — grants made possible by the generosity of LCMS members.

In Liberia, we are providing food supplies and other essentials, particularly for people who can't get to their workplaces to make a living. We're also offering sanitation and cleaning supplies to households as a preventive measure. And, we are engaging with Lutheran congregations and schools to educate people on how Ebola is spread and contained.

Meanwhile, in Sierra Leone and Guinea, we are assisting with providing food in remote areas where basic supplies are not available.

Everything the LCMS is doing, working through our main point of contact, missionary David Erber, the Synod's area director for West Africa, is being done with church leaders in the region. This is the best way — assisting our partners as they have the ability to use our help. We can do much more together than alone, as was demonstrated recently in the highly successful Lutheran Malaria Initiative.

The same holds true within our Synod. Many have contacted our offices wondering how they can help fight Ebola. The most effective way is to give through the LCMS, allowing our missionaries and staff to come alongside African church leaders to coordinate with our LCMS Disaster Response and Health Ministry efforts. The Synod's online giving page — <https://www.lcms.org/givenow/epidemics> — is for this purpose, directing funds to the LCMS' Epidemics & Infectious Diseases Response Fund.

The battle to save lives from Ebola will be a long fight, some saying up to two years. And now there are reports of another disease, the so-called Marburg virus, coming out of Uganda. We will be in this for the long haul — that is a hallmark of LCMS mercy work. As Lutherans, we stay until the job is done, bringing physical aid and comfort even as we proclaim the Gospel.

The Church's work of mercy extends beyond national borders, and it cooperates with others in meeting human need. That is the model of our current battle against Ebola — Christ's love for the whole person, body and soul, as our supreme example for life in this world. Christian service of our neighbor finds its source, motivation and example in Christ's incarnate, redeeming, atoning, active love (Phil. 2:1-11). Every aspect of the faith drives us outside ourselves to care for our neighbor.

I invite you to share the contents of this letter with your congregation.

With thanksgiving to God for your faithful service on behalf of the Gospel, I remain

Yours in Christ,

Matthew C. Harrison, President

The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod

Warm-A-Child from the Helping Ministry

For this holiday season we again are presenting a wonderful way for our church and school community to help some needy children from local public schools, St. Vincent de Paul, Bristol Pre-schools, and from within our own congregation. The Warm-A-Child Christmas tree, found by the library is decorated with paper mittens describing specific clothing requests. If you would please choose a mitten or two, fulfill the request, and place the gift wrapped package(s) (with the mitten attached) back under the tree by Dec. 7, your gift will be very, very appreciated. If anyone has requests for this service, please call MaryAnn at 860-583-2975.

We are also sending unwrapped newborn items to the area's Crisis Pregnancy Center. We hope to fill some boxes with lots of diapers, clothing, and just about anything suitable for an infant.

Thank you in advance for your help and support. And... have fun shopping!

Psalm 19:14: May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.

Psalm 28:7: – The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and he helps me....

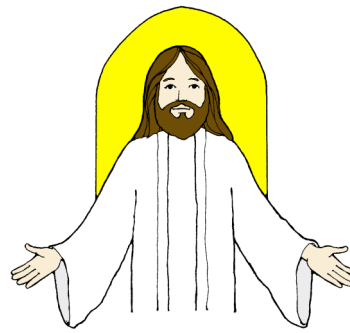

From The Editor:

It is so tough to live your life as a Christian. Every day when I wake up, I thank the good Lord for allowing me to wake, and pray that He helps me through the day without screwing up too bad. Last week I didn't do so well. I got sucked into a conversation complaining about something someone was or wasn't doing. I usually try to avoid gossip situations at all costs because I realize how destructive that sort of thing can be, but for some reason, my sympathetic ear turned into an attack on www.clipartof.com · 1044810

someone who was not around to defend themselves. Half way through the conversation I realized where it was going, and I tried to look for an escape, but was a contributor none the less. The rest of the day I felt awful. I couldn't stop thinking about the poor person that we were talking about. Half way through the week, the thing that we were complaining about became irrelevant because the person that we were talking about had addressed it. This made me feel even worse. Sins like that have a way of eating away at you until forgiveness is requested. God knows that we are all weak human beings with a penchant for sinning, yet He forgives our sins anyway and continues to love us. What an amazing God! If I can take away anything from this slip up, it would be that we are all very different people with different ideas, work habits, interests, and priorities. Just because someone may not think or act like you, it doesn't mean that they are wrong and you are right. We are all in this thing called life together so follow the Golden Rule and treat everyone the way you would like to be treated. It is so simple, sometimes it seems impossible.
