

THE WOLF'S HOWL

September 19, 2014

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S PEN...

Once there was a young boy by the name of Al. Although he was a generally obedient young man, he had crossed the line with his parents this time. Al's father quietly walked him to the town sheriff's office. Without comment he handed a note to the sheriff who nodded his head and looked at young Al and said, "Follow me." Young Al was led to a cell and the sheriff said, "This is what happens to naughty boys." The cell clanged shut.

Al was sure that all was lost. He had surely exhausted his father's patience and was now doomed to this punishment. Al had no hope of ever seeing his family again. What seemed like hours (but was only five minutes) passed before a reprieve was given.

The moment of the clanging cell door lasted with young Al for the rest of his life. The horror of being separated from his father's love forever haunted him. This fear of abandonment and loss of hope contributed to a life long obsession in causing the same or similar fear in others. You see young Al became very famous as an adult. He was Alfred Hitchcock.

As we go through our lives, we are many time like young Al. We continue to push the envelope of God's grace and mercy and disregard His calls to change. The behavior we exhibit, attitudes we show, conversations in which we participate all shove our Lord away. You would think that the Lord would walk away. The devil tries to convince us that we are in a hopeless position. That the cell door of our eternal despair seems to slam shut.

Paul challenges these attacks on our Christian hope with definitive questions.

- "If God is for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31)
- "Since God did not spare even His own Son but gave Him up for us all, won't God, who gave us Christ, also give us everything else?" (Romans 8:32)
- "Who dares accuse us whom God has chosen for His own?" (Romans 8:33)
- "Who then will condemn us?" (Romans 8:34)
- "Can anything separate us from Christ's love?" (Romans 8:35)

Paul's answer to all of these is unequivocal. "Nothing in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8:38-39) Our Lord Jesus loves us with an everlasting love. There is no clang of the eternal door for us who have faith in Jesus as Savior and Lord. He forgives us, He calls us, He wraps us in His loving arms.

The devil may throw all types of doubt into our life, but we have nothing to fear. The promises of our loving God never fade or evaporate. The door always stands open.

For over 115 years, our school has made Christian Education a centerpiece of it's ministry. In order to make this possible, it is vital that we have resources available for tuition assistance. If you would like to contribute to this fund, you can make a donation by simply putting your gift in an envelope clearly marked for Tuition Assistance. Like any other donation to Immanuel, this gift is tax-deductible.
