OUR MISSION

The people of Immanuel Lutheran Church are living proof of the grace of God through salvation in Jesus Christ. Empowered by Christ, our mission is to reach out in love to those who have not yet responded to the Gospel that all may be united in Christ.

Rev. Kevin A. Karner
Pastor

Mr. James F. Krupski
School Principal

A NEW PRINCIPAL!

New Administration

After prayerful consideration of the call extended to him, Mr. James F. Krupski, of Fargo, North Dakota, has decided that the Lord is leading him to serve at Immanuel Lutheran School.

Mr. Krupski has 27 years in Lutheran Ministries and is a graduate of Concordia University, River Forest with a Bachelors degree in history. He also graduated from Indiana University, Fort Wayne, Indiana with a Masters in Educational Administration. Mr. Krupski states that he believes that God has placed teachers in this ministry to “feed the lambs that Christ has placed in our care” and that his goal as an educational leader is to “have each child leave our school with a clear understanding that they are a child of God through the death and resurrection of their Lord and Savior”. He will assume the responsibilities as principal effective June 1 of this year.

We give thanks to God for answering our prayers and sending one to lead our school forward in this vital ministry.

A Long Journey

It is said that God has three answers to our prayers: yes, no, and wait. In the case of Immanuel’s prayer for a principal, God’s answer has most definitely been , wait.

The journey began three years ago with the resignation of Claire Neagley. Seeking to fill that position, the Board of Christian Education began the hard work of planning, investigating and searching for a new principal while, at the same time, finding others to fill in as interim principals to keep the school going until a principal was found.

In that space of time, the BOCE was led by three different chairmen, changed 10 board members, worked with four interim principals and made several staff changes.

The BOCE looked through more than a hundred LEIF’s (information forms) of potential candidates, interviewed more than a dozen of those candidates and, with approval of the congregation, extended three other calls for a principal. Even then God’s answer was, wait. There is another yet to come.

It has been a long and often painful process and the Chairmen and members of the Board of Christian Education are to be commended for their faithfulness, patience, endurance and service to the Lord and this church. These include:

Claudia Bishop, Vern Koch, Rob Redman, Laurie Grekula, Lori Eschner, Armin Hauer, and Lisa Bugryn. Special thanks also go to past members whose vision was instrumental in getting us going including Glorie Romaniello, Claudia Schab, Mary Ann Kalwat, Don Kalwat, and Jack Gohsler. In addition to those people, a big thanks goes to Ken Michelson, Bill Wentland, and Howard Schmelder for their guidance and unwavering love of the Church, School, and our Lord Jesus Christ and to the current Chairman, Jason Krueger under whose leadership the BOCE and the congregation received another answer to our prayer.

This time, God answered, YES.

LWML DISTRICT CONVENTION

The LWML New England District Convention was held April 27-28 with the theme "COME". Convention attendees came together for worship, Bible study, prayer, informative sessions, singing and fellowship. The 70th anniversary of LWML was celebrated at the banquet with a fond look back at 1942. LWML memorabilia from the past 70 years was displayed.

Attending from Immanuel were Claudia Bishop and Gail Smuda; delegates Laurie Grekula and Linda Wall. Delegates approved a mission goal of $55,000, with 35,750 for LWML-NED mission grants, $13,750 for LWML national mission grants and $5,500 for LWML-NED administration. Immanuel Lutheran School's mission grant proposal was selected to receive $4,000 to provide tuition assistance for non-member children in the Bristol community.

Pastor Schumacher attended the convention on behalf of Lutheran Friends of the Deaf (Mill Neck Family of Organizations). The project to produce a set of Bible story books in Russian and Russian sign language will receive $2,000. Three Bible story books for children in American Sign Language have already been produced. Jesus Blesses the Children, The First Easter Day and The First Christmas use a combination of written language, art work and illustrated sign language to aid hearing and deaf children grow in grace and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ. Other books will be developed and distributed around the world. Come to the June meeting if you'd like to see the books.

Attendees returned home inspired by the experience and motivated to Serve the Lord with Gladness.

National Mission Grant

Crow Indian Ministry—Montana $69,999.64

Crow Lutheran Ministry in Montana has been sharing the Gospel for more than 25 years. The members, led by Pastor Daniel Jacobs, gather for worship, children's after school classes and Bible study. They also reach out to other Crow Indians on the reservation and across the country. At the annual Crow Fair, Native Peoples from many states meet to celebrate their culture. This gathering provides a unique opportunity to share the message of salvation. Pastor Jacobs has been invited to other reservations because of contacts made at the Crow Fair. He provides written materials, instruction, and support to an ever-expanding number of people. From the beginning of this ministry in 1984, the Montana District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) has supported the Crow. LWML has also helped encourage the Crow for many years. In 1997, LWML grant dollars were used to construct their first church building in Lodge Grass, Montana. The Montana District of the LCMS has had to cut funding due to their own financial shortages. Even though the congregations at A Spring in Dry Land Lutheran Church in Crow Agency, Montana, and Under the Shadow of His Wings Lutheran Church in Lodge Grass are strong, they are small and unable to fully support the needs of both the congregation and this outreach ministry. The LWML grant will provide $69,999.64 to supplement the budget for two years, allowing this ministry to continue providing the Gospel to members of six Crow communities living in Montana's Crow Indian Reservation, as well as countless others across America.

“What About...The Apostles’ Creed” By Rev. Dr. A. L. Barry

Unchanging Truth in Changing Times, LCMS Office of the President (2001)

As the month of June begins with the Festival of the Holy Trinity it's good to be reminded of "the mighty deeds of the Holy Trinity by which He has created us, by which He has redeemed us, and by which He keeps us in the one true faith until life eternal."

What does it mean to confess the Christian faith?

There is nothing more sure or certain in this life than the word and promise of God. With the words of the Apostles' Creed, Christians through the ages have responded to God's Word to them. With the Psalmist we pray, "O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth shall confess your praise" (Ps. 51:15). The word "creed" comes from the Latin word, "credo" which means, "I believe." To "confess" means to make a declaration of what one believes. When we confess the faith of the Christian church in the words of the Apostles' Creed, we are confessing our belief in who the Holy Trinity is, and what God has done for us. Each section, or article, of the Apostles' Creed speaks about the work of one of the persons of the Holy Trinity: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Each article of the Apostles' Creed is our opportunity to speak back to God, and to each other, the mighty deeds of the Holy Trinity by which He has created us, by which He has redeemed us, and by which He keeps us in the one true faith until life eternal. This is a very important dimension of our faith and worship of God.

What do we confess about God the Father?
"I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of
heaven and earth."

We all believe in one true God, maker of the earth and heaven. "Our Father," he would have us say; children's place to us has given. He has pledged always to feed us; body, soul, to keep, to nourish. Through all evil he will lead us, guards us well that we may flourish. He cares for us by day and night and governs all things by his might. l

That there is a god is a truth known to all human beings simply from the very existence of all things. This is called the natural knowledge of God. There is nothing very remarkable about believing that there is a god. Only a fool says, "There is no god" (Ps. 53:1). The real issue is not that people believe in no god, but that they are tempted to believe in a god who is not the one, true God. Or, that they are tempted to put in the place of the true God, "gods" of our culture, like money, success, popularity or pleasure. The first article of the Apostles' Creed declares that Christians believe, teach and confess that the one, true god is none other than the One who has made the heavens and the earth, and everything in them. But more than that, He is our Father who provides and cares for us as a father cares for his beloved children.

We believe that He has made us and has given us all the good things we have in this life. This He has done purely out of the love He has for us as our Father. He not only gives us life, He also defends us, guards us, and protects us during this life, so that we will join Him in heaven for all eternity. There is nothing in us that makes us worthy of the good things God gives us. It is all from His love as a father. How glorious it is to know that the same God who created heaven and earth also created each one us and cares for us personally.

What do we confess about God the Son?
"I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead."

We all believe in Christ, His Son, whom as Lord we are addressing of equal Godhead, throne, and might, source of every grace and blessing. Born of Mary, virgin mother by the power of the Spirit, made true man, our human brother through whom sonship we inherit; He, crucified for sinful men, through God's power rose to life again.

We are able to believe that God is our Father, because of what His Son, our Savior Jesus

From the Pastor's Desk

Christ, came into this world to do: to live perfectly in our place, to suffer and die to pay for the sin of the world, and then to rise victorious over humanity's most ancient and most evil enemies: sin, death and the devil.

Jesus Christ, the second person of the Holy Trinity, the Son of God from all eternity, was born of the Virgin Mary, to offer up to the Father His precious body and blood for the forgiveness of the sins of the world. Through this sacrifice, the Son of God won for us reconciliation and peace with God, a peace that had been shattered by sin, both the original sin common to all human beings and the sin that is unique to each of us.

At the Father's command, Christ came into this world to do all this for us so that we would be His very own by faith, serving Him and living for Him. Our hope is in the One who rose from the grave and now lives as our Savior for all eternity. How blessed we are to have been brought to the knowledge that Jesus Christ is the Savior of the world and that in Him we have the full and free forgiveness of all of our sins and the promise of eternal life forever with Him in heaven.

What do we confess about the Holy Spirit?

"I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting."

We all confess the Holy Ghost, who grants comfort, grace, and power. He, with the Father and the Son, robes us for the triumph hour, keeps the Church, his own creation, in true unity of the spirit; here forgiveness and salvation come to us through Jesus' merit. The body risen, we then shall be in life with God eternally. Amen.

The Holy Trinity, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, one God, three persons, equal in majesty and together being of one essence, truly does love us as His own dear children. The Holy Spirit calls us into fellowship with the Trinity, by the powerful means of grace that God has given: the Word and Sacraments. With the Word and Sacraments, He keeps the entire church on earth in the one, true and saving faith.

As Luther explains in his Large Catechism, the Holy Spirit works in our life through the church because the church "is the mother that begets and bears every Christian through the Word of God. The Holy Spirit reveals and preaches that Word, and by it He illumines and kindles hearts so that they grasp and accept it, cling to it, and persevere in it." In the church, the Spirit of God is daily pouring out the forgiveness of sins in rich measure so that on the last day we will rise from dead and join all believers in Christ in eternal life. Daily we want to thank and praise God the Holy Spirit for His work in our lives.

Why do we use creeds?

Some church bodies shy away from making formal statements of faith. The Lutheran church is not hesitant to use the historic, universal (ecumenical) creeds. We use the Apostles' Creed, the Nicene Creed and the Athanasian Creed. These three ancient creeds are how we confess the one, true faith of the Christian church and they help us to identify with all believers in Christ throughout all ages.

The historic creeds are, as our church recently stated in convention, "the cherished possession of the entire church down through the ages and are not just the expression of any one individual. The church has maintained the confession of these creeds and has even suffered martyrdom rather than deny the faith confessed in them." Therefore, the use of the historic Christian creeds is a very important part of Lutheran worship services. Because we know that personal, individual statements of faith are oftentimes subject to imprecise and even erroneous confessions of the faith of the church, we discourage the use of informal statements of faith in the public worship of the church.

Creeds serve as a way to make sure that the church continues to believe what the Word of God teaches. The treasure of truth in the Word of God is what we wish to confess and to stand for as a church. It is based on these truths, as confessed in the Apostles' Creed, that the people of God are led to serve Him in both word and deed.

When we confess the Apostles' Creed, and the other historic creeds, we confess the faith of the Christian church. We do so with joy and confidence. With these words on our lips and in our hearts, we have the assurance that we are speaking back to God the truths He has first spoken to us. And thus, with confidence in the Lord's sure and certain Word, we say, "This is most certainly true."

Young-At-Heart

Hope you can join us for our June Picnic Lunch which will be on Thursday, June 7, at 11:30 am in the Old School Basement. We warmly welcome everyone, especially first-time attendees who are over age 50. We are supplying the meat, rolls, and dessert, but need some help with the other picnic items. Donations of potato salad, coleslaw, baked beans, macaroni salad, green salad, jello salad or anything that will make our picnic buffet special would be appreciated.

Our program this month is "Senior Show and Tell" as you bring an item that is special to you, and tell us a little about it. It could be something you collect, some special talent you have, something you made yourself, some family treasure, or just something you would like to share with our group. Sounds like a fun idea; think about what YOU will bring. We might hear about some hidden talents or something you would like to share with us.

Our group lunches do not occur during the summer months of July and August, but we are planning a couple daytrips for our group. On July 20, we are joining the Bristol Senior Center trip for a Hudson River Cruise on an authentic New Orleans paddle wheeler with lunch at a wonderful restaurant on the Hudson for $80. This Friday motorcoach trip starts at the nearby Bristol Center Mall area near McDonalds and you have a choice of lunch entree; contact Carol Maron at 860-582-9608 for more details and to register.

We may go to the Goodspeed Opera House again this August to see the show "Carousel" and have lunch at the Gelston House. The price this year is $64, but the only date available is Thursday, August 30. The third idea is a Hartford area daytrip to view the taping of the Channel 3 "Better Connecticut" Show and then have lunch at the Lincoln Culinary Restaurant near Aetna. Try to join us for one of our daytrips.

Friendly Visitor Volunteers are asked to please take a card, out of the tan envelope in our mailslot in the church office, and schedule your springtime visit to a homebound member soon. Many of our homebound members are waiting for your friendly call and visit. Anyone can make these important church visits.

Baby Bottle Fundraiser

A Baby Bottle Fundraiser is a fun way for families to participate in crisis pregnancy ministry. The Crisis Pregnancy Center (CPC) in Unionville is a non-profit, volunteer, Christian agency committed to assisting women in crises due to pregnancy by providing emotional support and practical assistance. CPC has been in operation for the past 26 years. Baby bottles were handed out on Mother's Day, May 13th, for you to take home and fill with pocket change. Mr. Wentland,

Thank you so much for the generous scholarship from the Immanuel Lutheran Foundation's Westfall Funds. Having worshipped at Immanuel Lutheran Church for my entire life, it means a great deal that the church is supporting me in my future endeavors. As I pursue my bachelor's degree from Salve Regina University, I continue to appreciate the lessons I've learned from Immanuel Lutheran Church and Sunday school, which will stay with me for the rest of my life.

Once again, thank you for your support, and may God bless,

Messenger Takes a Vacation

The next issue of Messenger, our church newsletter, is the July issue. The due date for submissions is May 28, 2012. This will serve as a SUMMER newsletter as there will be no August issue.

Submissions for the September issue of Messenger are due by July 28, 2012. This will focus on the new school year (our 116th year) and the new administration under our new principal Mr. James Krupski.

'Well, Kiddo, it's You and Me!'

T.J., a boy with developmental delays, is featured in Chicken Soup for the Soul: Children With Special Needs. T.J. and his father, who'd long yearned for a son, settled into a routine of daily outings.

Stacey, one of T.J.'s sisters, was moved when she realized how much their father loved that together time. One day, as their dad made T.J. laugh, “T.J. stopped and reached up to softly touch our father's face,” Stacey writes. “My dad looked down at him and said ... ‘Well, kiddo, it looks like it's you and me for the rest of my life.’ There wasn't a sense of sadness or burden in my father's voice, only acceptance and unconditional love.”

Our Father God says the same to each of us: “Well, kiddo, it's you and me forever!” No matter our weaknesses, our differences or even our tendencies to avoid time with him, God speaks with complete acceptance and love. He loves being with us — just as we are — and rejoices to be our Father forever.

Are We There Yet?

This age-old refrain of young travelers is followed by a second question: “How much longer?” How similar those queries are to the psalmist’s oft-repeated cry, “How long, O Lord, how long?” (Psalm 6:3b, NIV).

Patience is an uncommon virtue these days. We’re anxious to get where we’re going or to get what we want. But think how much we miss while wishing we were elsewhere! In our rush to reach a destination, we fail to grasp lessons that can be learned only along the way. What blessings might you be overlooking in the here-and-now and the right-where-you-are?

—Kari Myers

Out of Order

A confirmation teacher asked students to list the Ten Commandments in any order.

One girl wrote “3, 6, 1, 8, 4, 5, 9, 2, 10, 7.”

The Umbrella of Marriage

Lighting a unity candle, a common wedding ritual, symbolizes the bride and groom becoming one. The “I, me, mine” of each individual doesn’t disappear entirely, but the two are drawn under the umbrella of “we, us, ours.” When troubles inevitably come, the partners can take shelter together.

Many years into marriage, a wife underwent medical tests for troubling symptoms. Her husband accompanied her to the follow-up consultation. Later, when a friend asked how the appointment went, the husband replied, “We have multiple sclerosis.”

There was no slow, careful word-choosing. After years under the umbrella of marriage, the man’s pronoun selection was automatic: “We have multiple sclerosis.”

His wife smiled, even as a tear fell. She would be neither under the umbrella alone nor left out in the rain. They would weather this storm together.

“The topic I sent you was ‘What Jesus Saw in a Publican,’” he said. “You printed it as ‘What Jesus Saw in a Republi-can.’ I had the biggest crowd of the year.”
